

CONFLICT OF INTEREST CERTIFICATION
This form must be completed and submitted with your bid.

Franklin County operates under the County Financial Management System of 1981. The section that addresses conflicts of interest (T.C.A. 5-21-121) states that County employees “shall not be financially interested or have any personal beneficial interest, either directly or indirectly, in the purchase of any supplies, materials or equipment for the county”. “Directly interested” means any contract with the official or employee or with any business in which the official or employee is the sole proprietor, a partner, or the person having the controlling interest. “Indirectly interested” means that you are the spouse of the directly interested as defined above.

Your signature below certifies that according to the above guidelines, there is no conflict of interest for your company to submit a bid or proposal.
